

Friends of the Alaska State Museum

Youth Activities

These free workshops for students in grades K—8 explore the exhibits and themes of the museum, and offer children opportunities to learn art and science with experts, and express their own ideas through hands-on activities. They are sponsored by the Friends of the Alaska State Museum, and are funded in part by citizens of the City and Borough of Juneau through sales tax revenue

Comic Illustration Workshop

Saturday, March 22 1-3pm
Grades 4—8

Guest Artist: Kazu Kibuishi, author of Amulet: The Stonekeeper and the popular Flight anthologies, will present this cartoon drawing workshop. Pre-registration begins March 14
Limited to 30 participants.

Raucous! Everything Raven Family Day

Saturday, April 5 12-3pm

Designed for families with students in grades K-5
Guest artist Evon Zerbetz's upcoming exhibit, Raucous! Everything Raven, will be the backdrop for a day of family fun at the museum. Events will kick off at 12pm with a read aloud of Ten Rowdy Ravens followed by raven-inspired kid focused activity stations and a short film.

Archaeology Fair

Saturday, March 29 1-4pm

Designed for families with students in grades K-8
Archaeology experts will present activity stations for youth to learn all about the field of archaeology. Participants will make stone tools and petroglyphs, learn about ancient technologies for gathering food, map a mock archaeological site, decode a trash heap, and much more. Held in the Juneau Arts and Culture Center (formerly the Armory).

Storytelling Night at the Museum

Friday after school, April 18

Board a bus at the middle schools at 3pm

Return to school at 7pm

Skeletons, Mystery, Beating Hearts... A Night of revealing the stories hidden within the Alaska State Museum. This very special evening activity for "middle school only" students with renown storyteller Brett Dillingham offers the opportunity to discover and create stories using the objects and exhibits within the museum. Snacks provided. Register at school.

RATED: FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL ONLY